Naturopathic Doctors in Timmins - Naturopath and Chiropractor Richard Bartlett first developed during the year 1997, a transformative healing system called Matrix Energetics right after undergoing a life-altering event. Dr. Bartlett discovered that he can bring back emotional, physical, spiritual and mental balance in people with soft touching with focused intention. As an added bonus, he can correct misalignments that had bothered some of his patients for numerous years. Richard discovered that he can teach anyone this method that combines subtle energy with focused intent, active imagination and quantum physics.

The physical body is a resonating matrix of information in the biological field. According to Matrix energetics philosophy, the patterns within the resonating matrix could become transformed from physical or emotional injury. These interruptions can create embedded habits or perceptions that could block an individual from acquiring a condition of prosperity, health, happiness and various constructive situations. Matrix Energetics works to remove blockages, transfer these embedded patterns and change core beliefs to be able to allow the individual to attain their goals in order to create the quality of life and sort of life desired.

Practitioners of Matrix Energetics think that preconceived notions of restrictions are the source of a patient's issues and that these limitations can be removed instantly through the healing system of Matrix Energetics. This healing system is believed to remove the sources of both chronic and temporary concerns like emotional trauma, headaches, muscle spasms, scoliosis and fibromyalgia amongst others.

The system of Matrix Energetics is a stand alone healing method though several practitioners use it to be able to enhance other healing methods. A single session with a Matrix Energetics practitioner is capable of changing the belief system of the customer and could alter her or his beliefs about the structure of reality, the nature of disease and the healing process. Usually, recipients can feel a wave pass all through their bodies as their previous view of reality is changed and this is where the Matrix Energetics system enters into the realm of quantum physics.

Space and time are not a part of reality at the quantum level. An individual's consciousness can affect how subatomic particles behave, according to the quantum theory. Because the universe is interconnected with quanta, or tiny wave particles of information, that can be transferred at a rate faster than the speed of light, these quanta can appear everywhere concurrently and likewise move backward or forward in time. A person's consciousness could affect these quanta to change emotions and physical matter. These views and this information have been incorporated into the Matrix Energetics treatments and are accountable for the changes that take place on the cellular level within the individual.
